R-K Junior Selected for Youth Leadership St. Louis

Junior Alexis Cross ('13) is one of six area Girl Scouts chosen to participate in the Youth Leadership St. Louis program. Alexis will join over 100 other St. Louis area students in a series of twelve meetings over the next six months, in a program that emphasizes how leaders and community members work together.

"We are proud that Alexis will be representing R-K through her work with Youth Leadership St. Louis," notes Principal Judy Mohan. "Rosati-Kain has nurtured women of leadership, service and faith since 1911, and students like Alexis help carry out legacy into the future."

From the Youth Leadership St. Louis Mission: Founded in 1989, YLSL is a high school leadership program for juniors that develops leadership skills among program participants, promotes teamwork among diverse groups provides deeper understanding of the St. Louis region.

Rosati-Kain High School is a Catholic, Archdiocesan college preparatory school for young women who want to be challenged and supported in faith and in their efforts to become their best selves. The school is celebrating its centennial throughout the 2011-2012 school year, which includes a special service day (February 21, 2012), a celebration gala at the Chase Park Plaza (March 10, 2012) and a Leadership Day (April 20, 2012).
