R-K Volleyball Team Volunteers on 9/11

The Rosati-Kain High School Varsity and JV teams spent Sunday, September 11 participating in the “Day of Service to Remember” held at Memorial Park in Brentwood. Twenty-four students worked together to clean up a creek, write cards of gratitude to current service men and women, and participated in a flag tribute ceremony.

The day was sponsored by The Mission Continues, a service organization founded in 2007 by U.S. Navy Seal veteran Eric Greitens. The group’s mission: “To build an America where every returning veteran can serve again as a citizen leader, and where together we honor the fallen by living their values through service.”

JV Volleyball Head Coach Julie Anderson notes: “This project is important to the student athletes, as it helps strengthen the community we live in. It’s important to stress that as a team, students can work together to give back.”

Rosati-Kain High School is a Catholic, Archdiocesan college preparatory school for young women who want to be challenged and supported in faith and in their efforts to become their best selves. The school is celebrating its centennial throughout the 2011-2012 school year, which includes a special service day (February 21, 2012), a celebration gala at the Chase Park Plaza (March 10, 2012) and a Leadership Day (April 20, 2012).
